EXPLORING THE SENSES

A COMMUNITY PROJECT SPONSORED BY THE FRIENDS OF THE SUNBURY EMBROIDERY AND MANOR MEAD SCHOOL

An exciting collaboration between the Sunbury Embroidery Gallery and pupils of the local Manor Mead School for children with special needs. This 6 week project led by Artist and education consultant Stuart Simler is based on sensory experiences whilst taking a walk around the woodland surrounding the Walled Garden - documenting individuals responses to sound-texture-smells and visual imagery.

The final collaborative piece will see each 'individual' artwork assembled from the ground up with the inclusion of sound bites culminating in a visual and sensory 3D installation to be on show in the Gallery.

PICNIC IN THE PARK

THE FRIENDS OF THE EMBROIDERY are once again organising an evening concert in the Walled Garden. In keeping with the period theme of the evening, and if you feel so inclined, come in the attire of the period and we'll pick out the best turned-out group!

12 July to 7 August

ARTISTIC LICENCE

AN in-house 'Rise To The Challenge' yearly exhibition of embroidery by our volunteers and friends and associates. The starting point for each design is taken from an original photograph which the artist has used as inspiration to produce a nonrepresentational piece of embroidery.

15 August to 18 September

THE DIVERSITY OF GLASS

AMANDA HEATH RICHARD BELL
SARAH HAYHOE JANET ROGERS

Abstract, quirky, sculptural Glass Artists Amanda Heath, Richard Bell, Sarah Hayhoe and Stained glass Artist Janet Rogers encapsulate the beauty, brilliance and diversity of glass in very different forms. Amanda's sculptured forms inspired by fossils of Dorset's Jurassic Coast embrace the raw power of free-flowing molten glass, making a stunning contrast to Janet's vibrant contemporary stained glass panels.

Enjoy Richard Bell's unique bubble tank counterbalanced to create the illusion of hanging precariously over the edge of the surface, and not to be missed Sarah Hayhoe's architectural forms enhancing the Walled Garden.

10 to 23 October
